

I do not support this proposal. Code requirement must remain in place. This is still the most effective mode when conditions are the worst. Current levels are effective. Privilege to operate on these frequencies and service are to be earned not handed out. The present rules accomodate the people with litagitmate problems.